Camp Highlights:

Unit 1: SRV Theory and Change (Days 1-5)
Engage in interactive sessions about the history, theory, and application of SRV.
Participate in film screenings and reflective discussions that explore the impact of SRV..

Field Trip (Day 6)
Visit the Eastern State Penitentiary to learn firsthand about SRV applications in correctional settings.

Unit 2: Model Coherency Practicum (Days 7-9)
Conduct site visits and develop practical recommendations through collaborative analysis.

Unit 3: Designing a Change Project (Day 10)
Plan and prepare a personal change project to implement SRV concepts in your work environment.

Unit 4: Project Presentations and Feedback (Day 11)
Present your change projects to peers and receive constructive feedback.

Prerequisites: Attendees must have completed the multi-day SRV workshop and the PASSING workshop.

If you haven't attended the PASSING workshop, there's still time to enroll. The upcoming "Introduction to PASSING Workshop" is set for October 21-25 in Raynham, Massachusetts, US. For more details and to register, visit: Introduction to PASSING Workshop.

Applications will be available soon for interested in SRV Implementation Camp participants. In the meantime, save the dates!
